Subj: STANDARD NAVAL DISTRIBUTION LIST (SNDL)

Encl: (1) Foreword To SNDL
(2) Shore and Fleet Address Listings
(3) Fleet Chain of Command
(4) Shore Chain of Command
(5) Index of SNDL Codes

1. Purpose. To publish the official chain of command for Secretary of the Navy and Chief of Naval Operations established commands and detachments. To publish the official command addresses (including the homeport and permanent duty station assignments for fleet units). To publish the single authoritative source for Administrative Control (ADCON) command relationships in the Navy.

2. Cancellation. OPNAVNOTE 5400 of 1 March 2010.

3. Background. The SNDL is incorporated into the Navy directives system making it available to personnel throughout the Navy via the Navy Issuances website. The SNDL address database is now available in the Excel format only and personnel desiring to use it in other formats must convert the Excel version.

4. Action. Addressee changes should be submitted to DNS-33 following procedures set forth in enclosure (1). All organizational changes are incorporated automatically from OPNAVNOTE 5400s.
